WHO HAS DESTROYED STATE CREDIT?—The Albany Argus and its echoes are still harping on the depreciation of our State Credit since 1837, and most unfairly attribute it to the conduct of our Whig Administration. Now we defy the Argus to name a single Loco-Foco State at all engaged in Internal Improvement whose stocks stand so high in the market as do those of New-York at this moment. But that is not all: The general depreciation of State credit is demonstrably attributable to the dishonest and swindling course of Loco-Foco Legislators and Executives in threatening the reputation of their State Debts or openly repudiating them. Can any man doubt this? How is it possible that State Stocks should stand their ground, while our Youngs and Mr. Hoffmans are predicting that they will never be paid, and the Loco-Foco Governor of Mississippi declares that the bonds of that State shall never be paid, and is sustained in that avowed by his party?

If any man doubts that the present attitude of the Loco-Foco party of Mississippi, in nominating and supporting their candidates expressly on the ground of a repudiation of the State Debt, has seriously depressed and shaken all State Credit, we ask him to peruse the following extract from the last London Bankers' Circular, viz:

"The holders of the United States Bank debentures are looking forward with great anxiety to the election of the future Governor of Mississippi, as the Stock of that State is among the securities for the payment of the loan. The great fear is that a Governor may be elected who will treat in the steps of Mr. McNutt, whose office expires next January, in which case they have every reason to despair of these securities being of any value whatever. The conduct of the present Governor in repudiating the Bonds of the State has, as has often been observed, done the greatest damage to American credit, not only to that of the single State, but to the Union generally. Finding such principles as are avowed by Governor McNutt flourish in one part of the Union, the capitalists here are alarmed lest they may find corresponding sentiments in other parts, and any attempt to raise money here, even on the part of the Federal Government, would, in all probability, be a complete failure."

MASSACHUSETTS STANDS FIRM!—The old "Bay State" is the Whig State, first, all, next to it, not before, gallant Kentucky. Troubles at Washington or elsewhere, perplexities, disappointments and quarrels, may shake but they cannot overturn her. She is proof even against "perils from false brethren," and nothing less than fifteen gallons of the ardent can make her sound head swim. In spite of clouds overhead and disasters thickening on every side, she has nobly sustained herself in the recent Election, re-electing "Honest John Davis" Governor by 5,000 majority over Marcus Morton, and 1 or 2,000 over all the Loco-Foco, Abolition and scattering votes.—The Boston Atlas of Tuesday brings us returns from nine-tenths of the State, giving the following aggregates:

Counties.	Davis.	Morton.	Sci.	Everett.	Morton.
Suffolk	6,174	4,513	151	50,356	3,373
Middlesex	7,825	8,670	615	64,559	8,243
Essex	21,009	6,059	304	55,555	4,776
Hamphshire	3,214	1,799	214	27,086	2,912
Norfolk	3,690	3,643	187	26,761	4,241
Bristol	17,136	3,363	363	29,614	3,811
Worcester	33,924	6,593	375	39,222	7,435

Total	49,493	44,252	3,010	44,555	44,251
1841.	Davis ahead, 4,441.	39.	Morton ahead, 4,253.
1841.	Whole vote, 97,343.	Davis over all, 1,637.

42 towns remain to be heard from, which will increase Gov. Davis's majority.

Legislature.—In the Senate, the Whigs have elected five in Suffolk, five in Essex, five in Worcester, two in Franklin, two in Hampshire, one in Norfolk, and two in Barnstable, and one in Dukes and Nantucket, not heard from—twenty-three in all, or a majority of six in the Senate. This will be increased by two in Plymouth, and two in Norfolk, where there is probability of success by the party. There is probably no election for Senators in Middlesex, as Morton leads in the County the Senatorial ticket, and his majority is but 230 over all others. It is hardly possible but that a part, if not the whole, of the Loco-Foco ticket is defeated. Not counting Middlesex, the Whigs will have twenty-seven of the forty Senators. The Locos have elected three in Bristol, two in Hampden, and two in Berkshire. The House will be strongly Whig.

House, so far as heard, 62 Whigs, 46 Locos. No choice in many towns. No doubt of a Whig majority.

MICHIGAN has been swept clean by the Loco-Focos. The Editor of the Detroit Advertiser has heard of the election of one Whig to the House, but refuses to believe it. He concedes heartily with the unfortunate Locos, who will have to face the interest of the Five Million Debt they contracted in 1836, while their hapless State Printer will be compelled to do the public work at half his former price—he having testified last winter that this is abundant.

The citizens of Buffalo, after giving a Loco-Foco majority at the recent Election, immediately held a meeting and resolved that the enlargement of the Erie Canal from Buffalo to Lockport must be made forthwith, for divers good and substantial reasons by them stated. We hope their new political allies will give their case a speedy and favorable consideration.

We have received a calm and able article on the Public School Question, which we mean to insert, but cannot find room for just now. We purpose in due time to give place to five articles on each side of this question—said articles not to exceed a column in length. We could wish that the advocates of a change, and those who prefer the system as it is, would each select a champion from their respective ranks to set forth their views and objects in our columns, as above indicated. Is not this the best course? What we desire is to place the subject truly and impartially before the public, and there leave it. It seems to us essential to a proper discussion that the question be kept as independent of National Politics as possible, and discussed simply on its merits. We believe five articles from each side, published on alternate days, will be sufficient. Will the advocates and opponents of the School System as it is indicate to us respecting their acquiescence in or dissent from the discussion we propose?

HOW IT WAS DONE.—We have already stated the fact that the gallant and able William C. Dawson, late Whig candidate for Governor of Georgia, was seriously injured in the canvass by a clamor raised against his vote to impose a duty on Tea and Coffee, in conformity with the express suggestions of ex-Secretary Woodbury, while controlling the Treasury Department under Mr. Van Buren. It was vain to urge in answer that no impost on Tea or Coffee had been laid, and that both are still admitted free. Reason and Truth were drowned by an incessant clamor, and Mr. Dawson was stricken down for ineffectually voting a non-Protective duty which a Van Buren Secretary of the Treasury had recommended!

But this was not all: At the last session of the Legislature of Georgia, Gov. McDonald (Loco) volunteered a Special Message calling on the Legislature to relieve the distresses of the People. His plan was to borrow $2,000,000 on the faith of the State, lend it to the suspended "Central Bank," and have that Bank lend it out in small sums, payable one-fifth yearly. This project he submitted to the Legislature, (Whig,) which rejected it on the ground that the money could only be borrowed at a ruinous sacrifice, and would probably do as much harm as good if loaned out as proposed. We trust no genuine Loco-Foco will dispute the truth of these positions.

And yet this pestilent contrivance has re-elected Gov. McDonald! It was proclaimed all over the State as a measure of relief, of which the People were deprived by the hard-hearted and aristocratic Whigs! The State was flooded with handbills and newspaper appeals like the following:

"To the Voters of Floyd County."
"GOV. McDONALD'S MESSAGE OF RELIEF." Two Millions of Dollars, borrowed by the State for five years at six per cent interest, this placed in the Central Bank and loaned to the People at the same rate of interest, and one-fifth paid annually, until the entire amount is repaid.

"If Two Millions of Dollars was divided among the 99 Counties of Floyd County would receive its proportionable part, the sum of $21,500. If $21,500 was divided among the several voters of the County, it would give to each voter the sum of $36. But suppose only one-third of the sum was a note, and borrow the amount due to make the entire sum of $21,500 in the County, and this amount would run from hand to hand, and pay off debts, until none would remain unpaid; and still a great portion of this amount would remain in this County and continue to circulate and pay the wages of labor, industry and enterprise. If Gov. McDonald should be re-elected, and there should be a majority of the Democratic party in both branches of the General Assembly, this measure of Relief will be carried out at the next Session of the Legislature. The Whig Members of the Legislature prevented its being adopted at the last Session, when recommended by Gov. McDonald. See page 259 Journal of the Senate, and 424 of Journal of the House of Representatives."

By this and similar appeals to the cupidity of the ignorant and needy was Gov. McDonald re-elected and his party restored to power in the Legislature; and this result is trumpeted all over the Union as a verdict of the People of Georgia in favor of a "Divorce of Bank and State!" And thus cheated and cheating the world was gone.

In accordance with the alluring prospects of "relief" above afforded, Gov. McDonald's Message to the new Legislature holds the following language: "As a means of obviating the causes which have led to the disorders of the currency, a favorable change might be made in our banking system. The Central Bank is the only institution which has diffused its accommodations to the people of every occupation and profession throughout the State. This should be sustained by all the means at the command of the Legislature. But besides this institution, I am satisfied that the public interest would be promoted if there were but a single bank, located at our principal seaport, with a capital adequate to all commercial purposes, and required to establish a branch at each point at which banking facilities are needed. The many advantages which this would have over the existing system, must be manifest to all."

Huzza for the "Divorce of Bank and State!" Huzza for the "largest liberty!" The Message is filled with the praises of this Central Bank, and urgent suggestions that the State must raise money to replenish its coffers. Such are the fruits of the Anti-Bank victory in Georgia, over which our Loco-Focos have rejoiced so heartily!

SLAVE QUESTION.—Gov. McDonald informs the Legislature of Georgia that he last April made a requisition on the Governor of this State for the surrender of John Greenman, charged with "stealing from that State a negro woman, the property of Robert W. Flournoy." Gov. Seward required proof of the offence charged. This Gov. McD. refused, and a tart correspondence ensued, from which nothing has resulted. The Georgia Governor is therefore considerably savage upon the Executive and Legislature of our State, as planning to prevent the recovery of fugitive Slaves and the punishment of those who assist their escape. He recommends that the Federal Government take the whole business of restoring fugitives from justice or labor into its own hands, instead of confiding it to the States—observing:

"Cases like the one which has given rise to these remarks, are not to be endured. The property of our citizens is to be protected by the law, and the safeguards which we think proper to throw around it, and no State must be permitted to send its brigands and robbers amongst us to plunder and destroy, and then afford them a sanctuary and justify their outrages."

He has another remedy—as follow: "I would therefore recommend that a law be passed subjecting to inspection every package of goods that shall be imported either directly or indirectly, from the State of New-York, or any other State manifesting the same disposition of hostility to our institutions; and that competent officers be appointed to execute the law, with sufficient salaries to be provided by duties on goods imported from these States; and moreover, that all suspected persons coming from such States be required to find surety for their good behavior; and particularly that they will in no manner interfere or hold intercourse with our slave population while within our limits."

We learn that a number of Reformed Drunkards will address a Temperance Meeting at the Dutch Reformed Church, corner of Bleecker and Amos streets, this evening, Nov. 11, at 7 o'clock. We hope the house will be filled and the good work promoted.

MR. BRAHAM'S CONCERT on Monday evening was attended by a very large and discriminating auditory, by whom his good old hoarse English, Scotch and Irish songs were received with cordial approbation. He gives another and last Concert in our City at Stuyvesant Institute this evening. (See his Card.)

"Z. Y. X. No. III. on the State Prison Question, has been in view several days, but crowded out by matter of more pressing interest. We hope to publish it this week.

NEW-ORLEANS.—The sickly season has so far advanced that the business between New-Orleans and this city begins to resume its usual activity.—The splendid ship Onto, Capt. HEZEKIAH LYON, (Collins's Line), sailed yesterday with a very valuable cargo of assorted merchandise, a number of cabin passengers, and about 100 in the steerage. We are glad to see this fine ship introduced into the line. She is about 750 tons burthen, was built under the immediate inspection of Capt. Lyon, one of our ablest seamen, and is pronounced by judges one of the finest merchant vessels ever built in New-York.

GEORGIA RAILROAD.—The "Western and Atlantic Railroad" of Georgia is now nearly completed to the Etowah River, 52 miles. There has been thus far expended in its construction the sum of $2,181,257. Gov. McDonald urges its vigorous prosecution, and predicts that it will prove very profitable as well as advantageous to the State.

Five students at Oberlin, Ohio, last year, caught and severely whipped another student, whom they detected in sending dishonorable proposals to a young lady attending the seminary.—They were prosecuted therefor, both civilly and criminally; in the civil suit, the Lynchers recovered $1,500; in the criminal, the Lynchers were found guilty, and fined, one $100, the others $50.

Sir Allan McNab requests all those who participated in the destruction of the steamboat Caroline to communicate the fact with their address respectively, to him without delay; also state if they have suffered any privation or injury on account of that affair.

The Alexandria Gazette reports a falling out between Messrs. Wise, Gilmer and Mallory, constituting the bulk of the State Rights' party in Congress. It hints that there is room for apprehension that Messrs. Wise and Mallory will come back to the Whigs. We think not.

It appears that Wellington, alias J. Augustus Smith, the Virginian writing-master with two wives, took his second wife from Richmond to Boston, where his first wife resided, remained there some time, and was detected there by his first wife. What could the foolish villain mean?

The extensive Chair and Cabinet Manufactory of Cutler, White & Co., on Washington st., Buffalo, was partially destroyed by fire on Friday night. Loss $4,000. Insured.

One thousand buildings have been erected in St. Louis the past year.

A VETERAN.—Died, in Union township, Lack county, Ohio, August 26, 1841, JONATHAN BENJAMIN, in the 103rd year of his age. Father Benjamin was born in Gosport county, State of New-York, October 14, 1832. At the age of sixteen he enlisted in the army and served his time as a soldier true to his country. He was married March 10, 1759, to Margaret, daughter of John, Indiana, in 1772 or '73; in May, 1777, the Indians broke in upon his family and family connections, and killed and took prisoners three entire families, his only son escaping to the fort. Among the prisoners taken by the Indians was his brother-in-law, Ezekiel Brown, late of Delaware county, Ohio. After being driven from place to place by these savage tribes, and enduring extreme suffering some six months, he removed to Maryland in the fall of 1779, thence to Pennsylvania in 1782, thence to Marietta in 1797, then to Western Virginia in 1789, thence to Licking, then Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1804, where he resided until his death.

DEATH BY POISON.—On the 26th ult. a man by the name of Vincent Tyrrell, about 40 years old, was found dead in the highway, near the school house at Fluvanna in this town. An inquest was held by the Coroner, and the verdict of the Jury was, "Death by intoxication." An empty whisky bottle was found in his pocket. His person supplied him with liquor any convenience! [Jamestown Journal.]

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A son of Mr. B. D. Montague of this town, aged 13 years, was accidentally shot yesterday by another boy while on hunting. In creeping through a fence the gun got tangled in the brush, and in trying to extricate it, it was discharged, and the contents passed through the body of the lad Montague, and killed him instantly. He was an interesting boy, and is a victim to the dangerous practice of allowing children to use fire-arms. [Owego Adv.]

MR. SECRETARY FORSATH.—We have heard two characters of this departed statesman.—1st. That he has been pronounced by British diplomats to have been the only public man in his administration on whose word the slightest reliance could be placed. 2dly. That he was the worst tempered man in the Union, and that England had sent the worst tempered man in her dominions (Mr. Fox) to be in daily communication with him. [Toronto Patriot.]

ROBBERY.—The store of Robert Holmes, adjoining the Mansion House, was entered last night through the front door by means of a false key, and nearly $2,000 worth of goods, consisting of silks, laces, &c. taken therefrom. [Alb. Jour. of Tuesday.]

THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.—We have no hesitations in pronouncing the Manesca System the best, the most perfect ever devised. It is simple, easy, natural, and by a sure and rapid process, instructs the learner in the art of speaking and writing the language fluently and grammatically.

Mrs. L. Manesca Durand, the daughter of the author of the System, who possesses superior qualifications as a teacher, is now forming her classes for the winter, at her residence, 33 White-street, and we advise those ladies and gentlemen who wish to avail themselves of her instruction, see advertisement.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.
Thomas Waters, of Lockport, Inspector of Sale Leathers, in place of Thomas Hewitt, deceased.
Daniel Mott, Jr. of Hempstead, Wreck-master for the county of Queens, in place of Thomas Hewitt, deceased.
